Sponsors wanted

Byron Shire Council is seeking sponsors for the ‘Safe Summer in the Bay’ initiative, which involves putting in place a number of strategies to reclaim the town, especially on New Year’s Eve. Strategies include:

- Soul Street NYE, family friendly activities in the heart and soul of Byron Bay, centred around Railway Park and along Jonson Street which will be closed to traffic.
- First Sun NYD, a peaceful way to welcome the new year through meditation, yoga. Oi gong and a healthy breakfast from some of our local food purveyors.
- A youth event to keep the under 18’s busy on New Year’s Eve
- Supported by road closures at the entrances to town, where only cars that display town entry stickers are allowed; all others to park and ride.

Sponsors are encouraged to contact Council to arrange a meeting, or discuss aspects of the Safe Summer in the Bay initiatives that could provide some mutual benefit. For further details please visit Council’s website www.byron.nsw.gov.au/new-years-eve.

Correspondence regarding sponsorship should be addressed to the General Manager, Byron Shire Council, PO Box 219 Mullumbimby 2482 or sent by email to joanne.mcmutry@byron.nsw.gov.au

Submission of a sponsorship proposal does not constitute acceptance by Council.

Enquiries: Joanne McMutry 02 6626 7316
